WORD FROM CROSSLINKS

To the seniors,

As NSUT bids you farewell, it fills us with unparalleled joy to present you with a yearbook as a token of remembrance and our love for you.

We understand how your last college years drained your optimism and went by with startling suddenness, but the times of laughter and happiness must be remembered, always and forever.

We believe that this yearbook would go a long way, for all the times you want to relapse into reminiscent thought and fill your day with joy- the joy of skipping classes to prep for fests, of the mellow hustle of a loaded metro, of the early morning calm of the campus, of watching strangers turn into family and unfamiliar faces starting to feel like home, it's been quite a journey. We hope for you to be able to hold on to these memories, and it would give us a sense of great fulfillment if this yearbook has even a small role to play in it.

On that note, as we part ways, we wish you loads of happiness, success and glory as you embark upon a new journey of career establishments. We'll miss you beyond words can express and extend our best wishes to you!

Goodbye seniors!

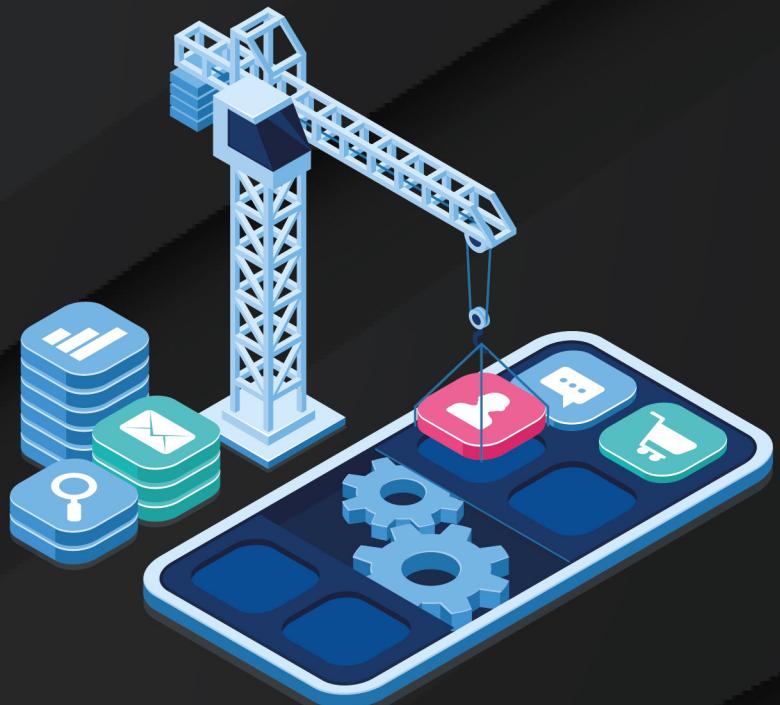

With Love
Team Crosslinks

"A picture is worth a thousand words. An interface is worth a thousand pictures"

Aarzoo Gosain

Don't forget to smile even if you feel like crying.

Aashish Tripathi

I procrastinated on writing this quote, just like I did during most of my college life.

Abhinav Ashok

What do we know? What have we learnt?

Abhinav Vadhera

I've learned from the bad times and was humbled by the good. It has been a great ride!

Abhinav Vasisht

It was a fun ride.

Abhishek Singhal

I lived upto my Last Name...

Achin Khattar

May sound cliche but I believe in enjoying life to the fullest. If NSIT has taught me one thing, it's to let go of things that are not under our control

Ajay Bhardwaj

Ascende Superius

Akhilesh Singh

I'm a senior but I stay fresh, man.

Akshay Agarwal

The yellow shirt guy she told you not to worry about.
